Miss Chamberlain says there never were enough latchkeys to go around in the Smith home and that many times boarders, who were all teachers, were compelled to stand out-side the house on winter nights and tracek at the door half an hour before

Miss Chamberlain asserts she finally berrowed a latchkey from another teacher and had a duplicate made. This the gave to Miss Winner. Smith de-manded it, but Miss Winner refused to give it to him, saying it belenged to Chamberlain says Smith has written letters demanding $2.75 for a w he says she broke when trying get into the house one night. "It ien't pleasant," said Mr. Smith

e-day. "to know that others have key to your home, and that is why insisted that it be returned. After all, I can't blame the teachers for wanting a good time, for they are just out of normal school. I intend to criticise their actions at the meeting, but I will say a good deal more about the principal and members of the

Smith has accused one of the teachers of being impudent to his wife. He also asserts another teacher gave her key to her flance.

SHE BALKED THE FIREBUG.

A firebug is busy again in Harlem. a tenant at No. 331 East One Hundred and Twenty-second street, was aroused by smoke and found that the stairs to the second floor were alight. Piles of cil-soaked paper were in the hall and on the second floor landing.

Twenty families were in the building and more than a hundred lives were put in perit.

The fire was extinguished by Patrol-man Cummins of the East One Hunand Twenty-sixth street station and several citizens who were passing. Fire Marshal Beers is hunting the in-
